Introduction to Ashika Investment Managers

01

Ashika Investment Managers Pvt. Ltd.

At Ashika Investment Managers, we recognize that investment decisions are inherently complex—often influenced by cognitive biases, market noise, and behavioral anomalies. When managing fiduciary capital, it is imperative to uphold the diverse interests, investment cycles, and expectations of our investors with discipline and clarity.

With this responsibility at the core, we have developed a robust investment framework grounded in data, quantitative analytics, and systematic research. Our approach is designed to cut through market noise, neutralize human bias, and navigate structural inefficiencies with precision.

What Sets Us Apart

 Data + Discipline: Investment decisions powered by data, designed to neutralize cognitive biases and market noise.

 Systematic Frameworks: Structured, research-backed processes for repeatable alpha generation.

 Cross-Domain Expertise: Team with multiple decades of experience across Asset & Wealth Management, Technology, and Analytics—both in India and globally.

 Fiduciary Integrity: Strong alignment with investor interests, backed by robust governance and compliance.

Our team brings together decades of cross-disciplinary experience spanning Asset Management, Wealth Management, Technology, and Data Analytics—across both Indian and global markets. This unique blend of expertise empowers us to build resilient investment strategies focused on long-term value creation and smartalpha generation.

Ashika Investment Managers Pvt. Ltd.

VISION

To revolutionize asset management by being a future-ready leader—driven by technology, innovation, and intelligence—while upholding integrity to deliver long-term value for investors and stakeholders.

MISSION

To leverage cutting-edge technology and data science to uncover innovative and scalable investment opportunities, while maintaining a disciplined focus on risk management, transparency, and long-term investor value.

INVESTMENT PHILOSOPHY

Revolutionizing Asset Management through Data, Technology, and Precision

Ashika AIF stands at the forefront of a new era in asset management—one defined by rigorous quantitative discipline, cutting-edge analytics, and a relentless pursuit of alpha through data science and technology-driven investing.

Rooted in a deep pedigree of financial expertise, mathematical modelling, and algorithmic precision, we are redefining how markets are understood and capital is deployed. Our foundation is built by a world-class team of quants, engineers, data scientists, and investment professionals, united by a mission to extract signal from noise and systematically deliver performance across diverse market cycles.

We operate at the intersection of machine intelligence, adaptive learning models, and institutional-grade risk management, giving us the unique ability to identify and capture complex market inefficiencies at scale.

As an alternative asset manager engineered for the modern age, our approach is differentiated by:

- End-to-end quantitative investment infrastructure, from alpha research to execution
- Massive, high-frequency data ingestion capabilities and real-time market analytics
- Resilient and transparent investment strategies with deep statistical underpinnings
- Dynamic portfolio construction, periodic optimisation and robust risk management
- A culture of constant innovation, driven by empirical results and intellectual integrity

With an unwavering commitment to performance, innovation, and investor alignment, Ashika AIF is not just participating in the evolution of asset management—we intend to become a thought leader in this space.
